USED RESINOL FOR

Considers Recovery Remarkable Brooklyn, N. Y. Aug. 14—"For almost six years I suffered from a severe case of skin trouble which began with swelling and intense pain in my knee.
Then my leg became inflamed and sores
broke out, which teched and burned terribly day and night. I tried many remedies, but gained no relief. I even spent six mouths in the hospital, and the doctors wanted to amputate my leg.
At last I tried Resinol Ontment and Resinol Soap and obtained relief from the first amplication. My knee is now well, and I consider the cure remarkable as my trouble was very serious."

AMUSEMENTS

The time-honored, "Gentlemen, be seated," was conspicuous only by its obsence Thursday night at the New Lyric theater when a turkey-fed Memphis audience, testing the capacity of source of tempt to surmise what would, come next. As it was, it seemed to be a merry contest among the minutels to see which one gould elicit the most merry contest among the ministress to see which one could elicit the most laughter.

It was an audience in a happy frame of ministress who gathered together to again honor the feast day of the Pilgrims. The two elements were in harmony, and before the curtain had dropped on the final scene Al Fleld had added to his already overflowing cormicopia of appreciation by his annual symposium of fim and song.

The military atmosphere dominates the carlier part of the performance and leaves a trail throughout most of the subsequent scenes. All the favorities of Muse are as welcome as of yore in songs which are of newer vintage, among those of whom an audience never trees being Charles Reinhardt, lack Richards, Leslie Berry, Ken Metcalf, Lloyd Gilbert, O. D. Jordan and, last but not least, a new face—Stanley Montfort, a youth pleasing and promising in song.

Of the funnakers, they are many and fully as effective and busy as ever, including Lasses White, Billy Beard, Johnny Healy, Billy Clark, Ed Uning, Boni Mack and others. The special-ties are too numerous to mention, but among those welcomed most were Ken Metcalf's opera burlesque, James Finning's orchestra, the saxaphone seronaders and Boni Mack's Visions of Salome, not overlocking Billy Beard's menologue.

Al Field has been unusually lavish

lome, not overlooking Billy Beard's monologile.

Al Field has been unusually lavish in his scenic embellishment and the costumes are splendld. Were one to attempt to epitomize the performance of this season he would be tempted to employ the versacular of the street and enthusiastically say "great." For all in all, Al Field's 1918 version of ministreley is one of the most profuse and spectacular, as well as generally satisfying, with which he has ever regaled the public.
